Hyland Crest Stages Successful St. Patrick's Party Here

The St. Patrick's Old Tyme Costume Party was quite a success on Saturdayy night. Residents and guests alike had a delightful and friendly time. Our Seniors entered into the spirit of it all by spending many happy hours previously decorating their specially-packed boxed lunches. Some of the ladies wore pretty ribbon bonnets for this gala affair and they all stayed until the party ended and were heard to say "why can't we have a party like this every Saturday night?" It was so good to see their smiling faces as the dancers cavorted around the floor to the invigorating music of Gordon Precoor, Jack Neville and Cece Winters.

Thanks to local merchants and friends of the Home, prizes were donated for the best costumes, the best decorated box lunches to the Oldest Lady present and lucky prizes. Carey Vasey kindly took care of the obtaining of prizes for the Auxiliary.

The two costume prizes went to Mrs. Lyons and Mr. Leonard Stinson and to the youngest girl in costume Miss Judy Precoor. Two residents won top prizes for the best decorated box lunches, namely Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Yarnold. The judges for the costumes were Bob Beeney and Bob Vick, and for the box lunches, Mrs. Flo Dollo and Mrs. Vick. The judges all agreed it was a very difficult task as costumes and boxes were all worthy of prizes. Some were done like flower gardens with birds and garlands of flowers; some were like treasure boxes with satin and jewells. One was done with purple velvet and lace with shells like an old-fashioned pin cushion or hanky box. One had to see them to appreciate the work and patience that went into the decorating of the boxes.

As to costumes, Mrs. Elsie Bursey caused quite a sensation in a gay flapper gown in purple complete with short-fringed skirt, beads and hair band. Mrs. Maxine Currie and Mrs. Olga Black from Haliburton dressed as men with cutaway coats and to add a bit of fun they even wore false and protruding teeth to disguise themselves. Mrs. Grace Coburn looked very fetching in a daffodil yellow evening gown of some 30 years ago. Mrs. Lily Rawlins made her own creation a period dress of flowery print with long yellow sash and it looked really elegant. Mrs. Gwen Walker, nurse on staff at the Home, looked charming in a hand-made old-fashioned blue and white dress with hooped skirt and bonnet to match. Judy Precoor wore a typical hill-billy costume and it was great to have some young people join in the fun. Doreen Stinson wore a cotton print with frilled skirt, lace shawl and cap and Leonard wore a blond wig with a blue pantalooned gown and made quite a hit with the residents. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Lyons came as two Japanese ladies from Hong Kong. Mrs. Stevenson was the oldest lady present and received a lovely jewelled broach. She will be 88 in May. Mrs. Pearsell a resident of the Home, amazed us all with her dancing prowess and she enjoyed both the Square Dancing and the more modern waltzes. Other residents played crocinole, cards or checkers, some joined guests in euchre and the others sat and watched the fun.

Lunch time was enjoyed with the excitement of having numbers called and everyone mixing for a lovely social time, making a nice climax and a happy ending to an active enjoyable Saturday evening at the Hyland Crest Home.

Although the crowd was not great, the Auxiliary members who planned and encouraged this Party felt it was worthwhile just to see so many happy Seniors wandering off to bed at 10:30 or so instead of sitting in the Lounge with nothing to do but just sit and then going off to their bedrooms at 9 p.m. or earlier.

Perhaps some other Groups would like to stage a Saturday night entertainment in the near future for these folks!

COMING EVENT

The regular monthly meeting of the Hyland Crest Auxiliary will be held Monday evening, March 22 at 8 p.m. in the Craft room. Come!

LINDSAY HOSPITAL EXPANSION WORK TO COST $7.6 MILLIONS TO COMPLETE

Work on the $7.6 million expansion program at the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay, will begin this summer and will be completed by 1974. The expansion will provide for an increase in capacity to 230 beds. new and enlarged emergency care and out-patient facilities, and an intensive care unit.

The citizens of Lindsay will be asked to contribute $333,000 to the hospital's campaign for funds.

The $7,689,783 total costs works out as follows: construction cost $5,783,238; architect and consulting fees $592,692; contingencies financing service charges and administration, $501,353.

Board chairman Stan Pitts said that $4,798,283 of the total cost will be borne by federal and provincial grants and loans, leaving $2,900,500 to be financed locally. Towards this sum the hospital has already been assured of $2,567,500 from the County of Victoria, County of Haliburton and neighboring counties and from municipal grants and bequests.

Only $333,000 is still needed from the people and businessmen of Lindsay and district to ensure meeting the needs of the community for the foreseeable future," Mr. Pitts said.

Ed Williams, chairman of the building committee, said that financing plans and architectural scale drawings have been approved by the Ontario Hospital Services Commission as adequate to relieve present overcrowding and meet the community's growing need for hospital services for the foreseeable future.

Working drawings are underway with commission approval and the erection of temporary buildings to house some services during demolition and construction will begin in May.

KINSMEN TO SPONSOR TEEN TOWN AT CENTRE

At the regular meeting of the Kinsmen Club of Minden it was decided to hold a Teen Town Dance every Friday night at the Kinsmen Centre (Lutterworth School). The Kinsmen will chaperone the dance, but it will be run by the Teenagers.

The Club also intends to raffle off a boat, motor and trailer this summer to help raise funds for the new community centre.

The Club also sent a cheque of $500.00 to the Municipality as the first installment of their $10,000.00 pledge towards the new community centre.

The first dance on Saturday night was a great success and the club hopes to hold many of these throughout the year — watch for the announcements.

"WE SELL THE EARTH AND INSURE IT'S CONTENTS"

HERE AND THERE

with Fenwick Finch

A sense of humour is a wonderful and beautiful thing. It's a fact of life that you can accuse a man of almost anything and get little or no reaction, but, accuse him of not having a sense of humour and you're in trouble.

There are many kinds of humour but to me the most perfect one is the wry and dry and unrehearsed type of timing. The people who have this knack are a rare breed and their humour is priceless — mostly because it is so unintentional. Sam Welch was such a man and his wry humour was always good for many a laugh. Another old friend of mine, Sam Thurston of Dunsford used to come up with some dandies.

Since coming to Minden in the process of my job I have worked with J. B. "Bernie" Trepanier and he is, in my estimation, one of the rare breed. His sense of humour is priceless. During the past week or so a great many "contrived" jokes have been directed at Trudeau and his marriage but I think Bernie's contribution tops them all. It happened when we were discussing the age differential between Trudeau and his bride. Bernie was quite concerned about the situation and in all earnestness he said, "Gosh, I hope he knows what he's getting into!" There you have it.

* * * *

I understand Tom Farmer is branching out and he's starting a column in the Lindsay Watchman Warder, "Tom's Tips" and with word and cartoon he'll be bringing the public articles on hunting, fishing, and other wild life material.

Watch for the column, anything Tom does, he does well.

* * * *

Watching the "Boob Tube" last Sunday on Channel 9 covering somosexuals, lesbians, the Fraser Valley and what young people thought of Death — left me cold. Most of those interviewed were long-haired characters and they came through very well — intelligent, and realistic.

The one thing that left me cold and suspect was the CBC characters who did the interviewing, they had longer hair, more decided lisps than the "gay" ones they interviewed. Well, that's the way life is.

* * * *

When it came to the subject of "death" the young people didn't seem to have any set opinion and, that's the way it should be — when you're young death is too far away and it has no meaning. It's only when you get in sight of the "grim Reaper" that you appreciate him and give him a little thought. At least that's the way I see it.

* * * *

Here's another of the Fursey's contributions from Bob Talbert, and, I think it's quite true. "People with great reputations for patience are usually just people who can't make decisions."

* * * *

In closing, here's something to think about.

This is the grave of Mike O'Day
Who died maintaining his right of Way.
His right was clear, his will was strong,
But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong.

Drive carefully and give others a break — the country will be perfect again when the snow goes — be here to enjoy it.

JERRY HARRISON ANOTHER GOOD SNOWMOBILE RACER

We have another fine young snowmobile racer in our midst, 12-year-old Jerry Harrison has been making his presence felt in many of this winters snowmobile events.

This young fellow has been racing against the men and has won his share of victories. Last weekend he picked up 2 seconds at Emsdale Winter Carnival, one in the 25-28 — 340 class, the other in the Open Class. Recently he placed second in the Kearney Park Races for the Stock 'D'. He expects to go back to Kearney Park to race again this winter.

He races with three snowmobiles, in which his father keeps in good running order.

Keep this young lads name in mind, for he will be heard from on the racing tracks in the future. Good luck to you Jerry.

GOOD COMEDY - "ROOM 110" COMES TO HALIBURTON

For the Adults, "Room 110", a good comedy will be playing in Haliburton on March 22nd, at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School, curtain time is 8:00 p.m.

Canada's Touring Players Foundation company started their third annual tour in Windsor, on February 3rd, with four performances, two in English and two in French.

The company then moved to Sault Ste. Marie and Dubreuilville, to Thunder Bay, through Northern Ontario including Kapuskasing and Timmins; to Engleheart and Sudbury; on to Western Ontario with Chatham and Kitchener, into Haliburton on March 22nd and, finally, to Kingston and St. Lawrence Valley.

Plays chosen for the tour are "Room One Hundred and Ten" by Jacques Bobet of Montreal, and "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" by John Findlay of Victoria, B.C. Mr. Findlay is the author of the two children's plays toured in previous seasons, both completely successful.

Mr. Bobet is one of Canada's leading young writers. His play is a comedy about a young man and his father from Ontario and a young lady and her aunt from Quebec who are both booked into the same accommodation at a small resort hotel. It is one of the funniest comedies to be written in Canada for many years.

LAKE OF BAYS LINES

By Ross Leslie

Hugh McEachern — "Mr. Dorset", is again spending the winter in "The Garden City," St. Catharines. I hope that he listens to me on CKTB on Lake of Bays Calling! Broadcast time is 2.30 p.m. approximately, every Saturday and Sunday. Tune in. Incidentally, a little earlier this year, I interviewed Haliburton's own Ron Tyler on CKTB. Ron is the owner of Haliburton Highlands Air Service. One of the main reasons why CKTB's signal is so widespread in Ontario, is because it is a low frequency station — 610 kc.

Florence Piper of Baysville died on March 27. Miss Piper was the clerk of McLean Township for some years.

Brown's Brae Golfways is for sale. Ditto The Dorset Gift Shop and Glenmount Lodge.

Let's say hello to one of our good-neighbour lakes — Lake Kushog. Last fall I rented an outboard from Kashagawi Snack Bar and Cabins at Ox Narrows and enjoyed a little cruise. I made a stop at Henry Sibthorp's Texaco Station — which is the first service station that you hit on Highway 35 going south from Dorset. Kashagawi is open all year. Drop by and have a snack! Quite a few Dorset area persons have been doing just that.

Lake of Bays has regional government. Our mayor is Jack Hatkoski of Dwight. One of the new "improvements" around here is that you can't slice up your property anymore — unless the planning board decrees its approval.

As you know, we've had tons of snow around here this winter. Quite a bit of damage has been created. The snow plowers are being kept busy! I've been utilizing Bob Storey of Lake of Bays Marine and Bill Brown of Brown's Enterprise.

WHAT NEXT FOR MINDEN?

Minden is gradually making a name for itself as the sports capital of Ontario. In snowmobiling, we have the Prentice family, in hockey we are making our presence felt, in figure skating, we just have to look at last weeks results. To this list we can now add J. Earl Palmer, Minden's only renowned skier. Yes, that's him heading down Minden's first ski hill, in the picture below.

J. Earl's idea of building a gigantic ski hill, right here in Minden, was such a great idea, the old editor, with the help of Minden's road crew, decided to do something about it, in order to accommodate the ski enthusiasts. So, here it is, located just three feet to the north of the Minden Progress office, right smack in the middle of town — in fact that's part of the Progress office to the left.

The hill is twenty-one feet and a smidge high, with a gradual slope to the west for beginners and a blazing fast steep slope to the east, in fact J. Earl looked as though he was in "free fall", like in parachuting.

The day I managed to capture J. Earl on his first run, his harness kept coming off, he told me later he had his harness set for well groomed hills, and it just wasn't set tight enough for a gruelling test against nature, such as this hill represents. Since all hills have names, I have tried my darndest to come up with something suitable. What do you think of "High Hope", keeping J. Earl in mind.

If the opening day had been publicized, I am sure, hundreds would have attended. The first run down "High Hope", J. Earl did a beautiful parallel, then went into a complete somersault, with knees bent slightly, like the ones you see on television — and it all happened right here in the next ski capital of Ontario.

There is no tow yet, we are working on a limited budget, since I blew my promotion allotment on the new community centre. Next year if all goes well, we might have a chair lift to the roof, than a short suspension bridge over to the hill — I am sure it will capture the imagination of the ski buffs. Now that we have the ski hill, and the arena is just a matter of months away, one wonders what will be next for Minden?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

March 5th, 1971

Mr. Alan Greir,

Heart Month in Canada is now over, and on behalf of the Canadian Heart Fund, Ontario Division, please accept our sincerest appreciation for your co-operation and assistance during our financial campaign in February.

Our objective this year was $1,050,000, and although all returns are not in, we are quite hopeful that our objective will be attained — even surpassed.

Without your willing co-operation in communicating our needs to the public, the Canadian Heart Fund would not be able to express such an outlook.

Heart disease is everyone's problem — and again our thanks for helping us bring to the attention of the public that — research should be everyone's responsibility.

With best wishes.

Your very truly

Esterer M. Richards
Director of Public Relations
Canadian Heart Fund

The Editor,
Minden Progress

Dear Sir:

After reading your editorials for almost three years, I realize that you think Religion, and more especially the Church, is "for the birds".

Two weeks ago you blamed religion for many of people's problems because "the straight and narrow road has been too tough for everyone". Now this week you have solved all our problems with your editorial telling us not to worry.

This is not a new idea. Jesus gave his disciples this advice 2000 years ago:

"Do not be worried about the food and drink you need to stay alive, or about clothes for your body. After all, isn't life worth more than food? and isn't the body worth more than clothes? Look at the birds flying around; they do not plant seeds, gather a harvest, and put it in barns; your Father in heaven takes care of them! Aren't you worth much more than birds? Which one of you can live a few years more by worrying about it?

"And why worry about clothes? Look how the wild flowers grow; they do not work or make clothes for themselves. But I tell you that not even Solomon, as rich as he was, had clothes as beautiful as oneof these flowers. So do not start worrying: "Where will my food come from? or my drink? or my clothes? Your father in heaven knows that you need all these things. So do not worry about tomorrow; it will have enough worries of its own. There is no need to add to the troubles each day brings."

The above is quoted from Good News for Modern Man, a new translation of the Bible, St. Mathew, Chapter 6.

Yours sincerely,
Rhoda Best

P.S.: If you print this, thank you for giving us "equal time".

Clearwater Florida
February 20, 1971

Dear Mr. Greir:

It might interest you to know that despite the delays in mail delivery so common today the February 11th issue of the Progress arrived on Tuesday the 16th. I was pleased to hear of the successful Carnival weekend. I enclosed a clipping from the Ontario Forestry Report, that you might find of interest in light of the current concern with pollution of all sorts. Wishing you continued success.

Sincerely,
Russ Wunker

THE POLLUTION OF PRINCIPLES

As serious as the pollution of our air, our land and our waters is the pollution of our principles; the rules of conduct which determine right from wrong.

Generations ago there was not the necessity for many written or unwritten laws. Thus, the rules of conduct were simple and easily understood. Today, in our complex society, there are thousands of laws, often varying from municipality to municipality, province to province, country to country.

In recent years, teaching our children to understand and obey the laws and principles we have established has become more difficult. They learn from what we practise rather than what we preach.

Dad and son are driving to the store. Son says, "Daddy, you're going over 30." Dad replies, "Oh, there's no traffic". Something he adds, "and there are no cops around." Dad parks the car. Son says, "it says no parking anytime." Dad laughs and retorts, "My, you're fussy, we're only going to be a few minutes."

The 'phone rings. Mum answers, listens, coughs and says, "we'd love to go but I have a bad cold." That gives daughter a laugh. She knows Mum never felt better.

There are scores of other ways by deed and in conversation that we reveal to others, and particularly the young, that we are not always too concerned about honour and integrity, in social life, sport and business.

Whatever you care to call it — our principles, our ethics, our morality, our conduct — they have become polluted. And that is why our environment is polluted. Very few care anymore. What we are slowly but surely beginning to realize is that if we do not reform, the whole structure of our civilization will eventually collapse.

BRANDON'S MITES WIN KINMOUNT TOURNAMENT

On Sunday, March 14th., Minden's Mite entry won the Kinmount Minor Hockey Association Trophy by beating Coboconk 8 to 1 and Kinmount 5 to 0.

Brandon's Mites are coached by Larry Kent and Managed by Jim Hatkoski — these two fellows have done a great job with these youngsters this winter. Many of the Mites are in their first year of hockey and have showed fine progress.

Playing in this tournament was the Mite line of Leslie Both, Corey Walker and Mark Greir, who played in Novice competition throughout the year. These boys packed some added scoring punch, and were hard checkers throughout the day.

In the first game with Coboconk, Mark Greir was the big shooter scoring 4 goals, while Leslie Booth, who played one of his strongest games of the year scored twice, singles went to Harold Porter and Corey Walker.

In the Second game Mark Greir and Corey Walker each scored two goals, while Harold Porter picked up a single.

Mike Hatkoski played an outstanding game in the Minden nets only allowing the one goal in two games.

Those who played in this tournament are as follows: Mike Hatkoski, Scott Arbuthnot, Scott Valentine, Brent Moxam, Rick Beeney, Harold Porter, Danny Greir, Greg Austin, Corey Walker, Leslie Booth, Mark Greir.

CORRECTION

In last weeks congratulations to the Minden Midgets, by Marg Miller, Kirk Hewitt's name was left off the list of players by mistake. Kirk has played well for the Midgets this year. Our apologies.

It was moved by Doug Pritchard, seconded by Norm Harrison that the minutes of February 9th, be approved along with Special Meeting of February 18th, 1971. Carried.

Moved by Norm Harrison, seconded by Pat Campbell that the accounts amounting to $1,099.80 be approved for payment. Carried.

Moved by Norm Harrison, seconded by Reg Booth that effective March 21, 1971 the arena Manager's salary be hourly at the agreed rate for hours worked until such times as his employment is terminated. Carried.

Moved by Richard Parisotto, seconded by Doug Pritchard, that we do now adjourn.

MARCH IS HONEY MONTH

There are many kinds of honey, each as different in color, flavor, and aroma as the flowers from which the nectars were collected. The four different colors of Ontario honey are white, golden, amber and dark.

White honey, the mildest in flavor, is made from clover, alfalfa, basswood, fireweed, and raspberry and other fruits. Golden and amber honey is made from the nectar of goldenrod, red clover, asters and fall flowers. Dark honey, the strongest in flavor and aroma, is made primarily from buckwheat nectar. Each of these honeys has its own distinctive flavor.

Honeybees are free to gather honey over a wide area, and as a result there are few one-flower honeys available, say the food specialists at the Ontario Food Council, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food. Most honeys are made from a blend of nectars from a variety of blooms.

Snowmobiling with Ralph Plaisted

Leader, Ski-Doo Snowmobile Expedition to the North Pole

While our expedition battled its way to the geographic North Pole on snowmobiles in the spring of 1968, we encountered temperatures as low as 62 degrees below zero.

Most snowmobilers do not have to endure such extreme cold. But a strong wind plus machine velocity, combined with a cold thermometer reading, can create a wind chill temperature in the danger range.

Obviously, the need for warm, protective clothing for snowmobiling is a must.

One-piece insulated suits made of oxford weave nylon with orlon fleece linings offer excellent protection against cold and wet weather. A regular part of any snowmobiler's wardrobe also should be well-insulated boots and especially-designed mitts since feet and hands are easily affected by extremely cold temperatures.

Warm suits can be stylish, too. Ski-Doo Sports, for instance, offers such things as fur-trimmed hoods, bell bottom pants, stand-up jacket collars, and one-piece suits with two-piece appearance.

One final note of caution: Dressing warmly enough means dressing warmly from inside out. Start with insulated underwear and socks that protect against wind and cold.

DOLLARS AND GOOD SENSE

by William J. Martin

This column is a regular feature prepared by the Family Financial Counseling Service of the Avco Delta Corp., P.O. Box2820, London, Ontario. All questions submitted to the above address will be answered in print or by mail. Names will not be used in print. However, all questions should be accompanied by a complete name and address.

Dear Mr. Martin:

A friend of mine recently invited me to a special dinner party, which didn't cost either of us anything. After the dinner we heard about a door-to-door type of business that could earn us a lot of money, without much effort mainly by getting others to work for us, it seemed. However a small investment is required for supplies to start. Where can I check to see if this operation is on the up and up? It sounds too easy.

S. L.

Dear S. L.:

It sounds like a pyramid promotion to me, something like the old chain letter. For some, the "investment" amounts to thousands of dollars.

The problem is that such schemes quickly run out of new recruits. If you have to sign up five or six people to recapture your money, the entire population can be involved in just a few steps.

This promotion plan is used heavily in marketing such products as cosmetics, soaps and household cleaners, for instance. Generally, each worker gets a sum for each new worker found.

Recently in New York, the state supreme court ordered one company involved in such a multi-level distribution marketing plan (as they are called), to repay millions of dollars to New York residents who bought franchises on the grounds of "repeated and persistent fraudulent" business practices.

Remember, the emphasis of these promotions is not on your ability to sell the product, but on your skills at finding and recruiting others to join in.

As usual, don't pay or sign anything until you have thoroughly investigated. Check with your Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau or even the police. Consult with a lawyer.

The cast of the popular Sunday CBC radio comedy series, Funny You Should Say That, Barrie Baldaro, Peter Cullen, Joan Stuart and Ted Zeigler, are joined by Canadian humorist Max Ferguson for the last two shows of FYSST's current season March 21 and 28.

Starting Monday, March 22 Matinee listeners will hear a five part series about Hinduism, considered to be the world's oldest religion. Rusi Billimoria, writer and teacher, born in India, talks about the religion with Helen Hutchinson.

Tribute is paid to the Canadian ethnomusicolgist and anthropologist Marius Barbeau on CBC Tuesday Night, March 23. Barbeau once said, "Art and music, painting and sculpture is the face of a country." Barbeau helped preserve the face of Canada through his two major studies, French Canadian folk culture and the Canadian Indians of the Pacific coast and B.C. Interior. He collected and recorded folksongs, dances and legends. On the program, associates of the late Dr. Barbeau, including former Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and A. Y. Jackson, talk about Barbeau's career.

What is quality to the young of today? Concern on Wednesday, March 24, attempts to provide some answers with "Brown Rice Makes It", a non-linear tape about quality. For good living, emotionally, physically and intellectuallyy, one needs good food for mind and body. When one comes to terms with spirit, then one can apprehend quality wherever it appears. An unusual theory, an interesting program.

It's a bird, it's a plane — no it's — Sasquatch! Between Ourselves Thursday, March 25 takes a look at the legendary giant ape-man, Sasquatch who is supposed to inhabit the Interior of B.C. Most people consider the sasquatch to be a hoax or just another Indian legend until Roger Patterson took a 16 mm film of what seemed to be a giant, unknown, man-like creature. Now scientists have started an ape-manhunt.
